

Easter People

We are an Easter People and Alleluia is our son!
We are an Easter People and Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia is our song!

Today is the day so long foretold
In the books of the prophecies of old
That a Saviour who died would rise again
So that we who believe might rise with him!

We are an Easter People and Alleluia is our son!
We are an Easter People and Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia is our song!

Today He has come to shed His light
On a people who wandered in endless night
Now together we live in Him and raise
A joyful sacrifice of praise

We are an Easter People and Alleluia is our son!
We are an Easter People and Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia is our song!

Today He has conquered death and sin
And the powers of darkness cannot win
Over any who give their lives to Him
Let us open our hearts and let Jesus in!

We are an Easter People and Alleluia is our son!
We are an Easter People and Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia is our song!.
